

Headteacher's Message

Thankyou to all of you who found the odd socks and have donated to our online system for Red Nose Day today. As a school we thought long and hard about our Red Nose Day, and didn't want to add any burdens to your spending y asking for anything else other than the odd socks, especially considering the fabulous efforts everybody made for World Book Day only a couple of weeks ago.

Our new School Moneysystem goes live on April 1st 2023. If you're at all confused or need a hand, please come to the School Money session on Thursday 30th March either at 08:45am or 2:30pm to our school hall and have coffee, tea and cake.

We hope you all enjoy this Sunday as its Mothers' Day – please look in book bags to see if there are any surprises or even in the newspaper!! We wish all our wonderful women in our community a fabulous day. Don't panic, we will be celebrating Fathers' Day too later in the year!

Safeguarding

Please ensure mobile telephones are charged overnight away from your child's bedroom. Some of our Year 6 pupils at the moment, seem to be messaging one another very, very, late. All children need sleep to grow!

Thrive fun to try at home with your child/children

Relax with these easy to make calming jars - Take a clean empty jar/bottle and make a mixture of water, glitter, food colouring, washing up liquid, beads – anything you fancy. Put the lid on tightly, shake and enjoy watching the swirls and patterns as it settles.
